Vol. 45.] PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY. [No. 32.

BANGALORE, THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1910.

PART II.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

CIVIL SIDE.

Rule of Practice No. 145 dated 4th August 1910.

1. With the previous sanction of Government, the Chief Court prescribes the following statistical registers in order to facilitate the preparation of the quarterly and annual returns.

No. I. A. Register of regular suits disposed of.

No. II. A. Register of small cause suits disposed of

No III. A. Register of miscellaneous cases disposed of.

No. IV. A. Register of regular appeals disposed of.

No. V. A. Register of miscellaneous appeals disposed of.

No. VI. A. Register of execution applications disposed of.

2. These registers will be maintained by one of the clerks known as the statistics writer. When the records for any month have been arranged they will be made over together with the disposal lists to the statistics writer who, after making unit entries in the appropriate columns of his registers, will pass on the records and lists to the Record-keeper. The totals of the various columns will furnish the figures for the quarterly and annual statements which are now under revision.

3. Appeals from orders having the force of a decree, e.g., orders rejecting plaints or determining any question referred to in Section 588 of the Civil Procedure Code should be classed as regular not as miscellaneous appeals.

4. The forms of the registers now prescribed are appended hereto.
